DOWN HOME NORTH CAROLINA

Bryan Cohn
North Carolina House District 32

BIOGRAPHY/ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

Bio:
Bryan Cohn is a small-business owner, husband, father of three, and State Representative serving Granville and Vance counties in the North Carolina House. He owns and operates a local business in Oxford that creates jobs and pays a living wage. As both a business owner and legislator, Bryan brings firsthand experience with the challenges facing working families, employees, and small businesses.

Why he's running:
Bryan is running to continue delivering results for the people of Granville and Vance counties. He is focused on protecting local resources, strengthening public infrastructure, defending access to the ballot, and supporting workers and public employees. He believes elected officials should be accountable to their communities and measured by whether they make life better for the people they represent.

Freedom to Choose to start a family:	• Will protect the right to choose, expand access to contraception and IVF, and fight for affordable, quality healthcare for everyone.
Freedom for our kids to learn and prosper in public schools:	• Will advocate to protect public school funding, fight for better pay and support for educators, and oppose efforts to ban books or censor essential educational materials.
Freedom for Everyone to Prosper:	• Proponent of fighting for a livable minimum wage, paid family and sick leave, and affordable housing so every North Carolina family has a fair chance to thrive.
