DOWN HOME
NORTH CAROLINA

Cyril Jefferson
United States House District 6

BIOGRAPHY/ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

Bio:
Cyril Jefferson is a mayor, business owner, former educator, and community leader who has dedicated his career to creating opportunities and solving problems. As Mayor of High Point, he has focused on economic development, public safety, housing, workforce development, and supporting local entrepreneurs. He has helped attract investment, expand housing opportunities, grow small businesses, and reduce violent crime through data-driven strategies.

Why he's running:
Cyril is running for Congress because he believes North Carolina communities deserve real results, not political soundbites. He wants to bring his experience as a mayor, educator, and business leader to Washington to lower costs, strengthen communities, protect individual freedoms, and make government more accountable and effective.

Affordability:	• Lower the cost of housing, healthcare, prescription drugs, and everyday goods while supporting working families and small businesses.
Healthcare & Hunger:	• Protect Medicaid and Medicare, expand mental health care, lower prescription costs, and strengthen programs that fight hunger
Education & Workforce:	• Raise teacher pay, reduce class sizes, expand childcare, and create affordable career pathways, apprenticeships, and job training.
Economic Development:	• Support small businesses, manufacturing, farmers, infrastructure, broadband, and good-paying jobs.
Housing:	• Expand the supply of affordable homes while streamlining development and protecting communities.
Public Safety:	• Invest in effective policing, mental health crisis response, prevention programs, and accountability.
Democracy & Accountability:	• Protect voting rights, limit government overreach, increase transparency, and reduce the influence of special interests.
Women's Healthcare:	• Protect reproductive healthcare decisions and keep government out of personal medical decisions.
Immigration & National Security:	• Support secure borders, legal immigration pathways, modernized military capabilities, and strong support for veterans.