DOWN HOME NORTH CAROLINA

Dante Pittman
North Carolina House District 24

BIOGRAPHY/ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

Bio:
Dante Pittman is a Wilson County native, UNC-Chapel Hill graduate, and State Representative for House District 24, representing Wilson and Nash counties. A product of Wilson County Schools, he returned home to serve his community through nonprofit and public service. In 2024, he helped break the Republican supermajority and restore a critical check on Raleigh.

Why he's running:
Dante is running to continue making life better for working families in eastern North Carolina. He is focused on strengthening public schools, expanding healthcare access, creating good-paying jobs, making housing more affordable, and ensuring communities like Wilson and Nash have a voice in Raleigh.

Strong Public Schools:	• Fight for better teacher pay, more school support staff, transparent education funding, and strong public schools for every child.
Early Childcare Education:	• Expand access to Pre-K and early childhood education as a foundation for long-term success.
Affordable Healthcare:	• Protect Medicaid expansion, lower healthcare costs, and support healthcare workers.
Economic Opportunity:	• Bring good-paying jobs and new industries to eastern North Carolina while supporting local small businesses.
Attainable Housing:	• Expand housing options, improve existing properties, and create pathways to homeownership for working families.
