DOWN HOME NORTH CAROLINA

Gary Weart
North Carolina Senate District 33

BIOGRAPHY/ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

Bio:
Gary Weart is a retired North Carolina public school teacher, coach, administrator, and U.S. Army veteran with more than 50 years of experience in education and public service. He has taught, coached seven sports, served as an administrator and violence-prevention specialist, and taught at UNC Charlotte. He also co-founded Students Against Violence Everywhere (S.A.V.E.) and has been recognized for his work in school safety and violence prevention, including the Order of the Long Leaf Pine.

Why he's running:
Gary is running for North Carolina Senate District 33 to bring his decades of experience in education and public service to the legislature. He wants to fight for fully funded public schools, affordable healthcare, solutions to the rising cost of living, and safer schools while providing transparent and accountable leadership for working families.

School Funding:	• Fully fund public education and make sure schools, teachers, and students have the resources they need to succeed.
Healthcare:	• Expand access to healthcare and work toward making quality care more affordable for North Carolina families.
Cost of Living:	• Address the rising costs families face and pursue solutions that make it easier for working people to afford to live and thrive.
School Safety:	• Use his decades of experience in violence prevention to make schools safer and protect students, teachers, and staff.
