DOWN HOME
NORTH CAROLINA

Ingrid Nurse
Board of Commissioners

BIOGRAPHY/ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

Bio:
Ingrid Nurse is a lifelong Cabarrus County resident who has spent more than 50 years serving her community. Her career includes work as an educator, Planning & Zoning Commission member, Hunger Task Force volunteer, and Rehabilitation Services professional. She brings decades of local experience and a deep understanding of the community she calls home.

Why she's running:
Ingrid is running for County Commissioner because she believes Cabarrus County can embrace growth while protecting its neighborhoods and quality of life. She wants to put residents first by promoting responsible growth, strengthening public safety and education, expanding economic opportunities, and keeping local government transparent, accountable, and responsive.

Public Safety:	• Support first responders and make sure families feel safe in their communities.
Economic Development:	• Support local businesses, create jobs, and build a strong local economy.
Education:	• Invest in schools and workforce opportunities to prepare students for the future.
Healthcare:	• Expand access to quality healthcare and resources that support residents.
Housing:	• Promote affordable housing and responsible development that meets the needs of families.
Transparent Leadership:	• Keep government honest, accountable, and open, while ensuring every resident has a voice.