North Carolina State House District 26

BIOGRAPHY/ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

Bio:
Dr. L'Bertrice Solomon is a wife, mother, minister, and Johnston County neighbor who has dedicated her career to improving community health. As Chief Public Health Officer for Docs On Da Block, she works to bring healthcare to underserved communities and helps families navigate the healthcare system.

Why she's running:
Dr. Solomon is running for the North Carolina House to fight for healthier, stronger communities where every family has the opportunity to thrive. She wants to bring the values of fairness, dignity, and service to Raleigh and address the challenges families face in healthcare, education, housing, and the economy.

Access to Healthcare:	• Make healthcare affordable and accessible for everyone, including protecting rural hospitals and expanding access to care.
Lowering Cost & Stronger Economy:	• Help families afford the basics by lowering costs, expanding access to healthy food, and increasing affordable housing.
Strong Public Schools:	• Fully fund public schools, support smaller class sizes, promote fair discipline, and ensure every student has the resources they need to succeed.
Justice & Dignity:	• Bring fairness, dignity, and a commitment to serving every community to the work of government.
