DOWN HOME NORTH CAROLINA

Pat LeGrand
North Carolina State Senate District 10

BIOGRAPHY/ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

Bio:
Pat is a longtime Johnston County resident, retired IT professional, and proud mother and grandmother. She has spent years serving her community through voter engagement, political organizing, dog rescue, and volunteer service. Pat believes public service should be grounded in responsibility, fairness, and respect

Why she's running:
Pat is running because she believes public service should be grounded in responsibility, fairness, and respect. She wants to use her experience building relationships, engaging voters, and serving her community to strengthen Johnston County and make sure its residents feel heard and valued.

RESPONSIBILITY:	• Bring a thoughtful, responsible approach to public service and decision-making.
Fairness:	• Treat people fairly and ensure residents have a voice in the decisions that affect their communities.
Respect:	• Build goodwill and strengthen relationships among residents, community leaders, and public institutions.
Community Service:	• Continue building a stronger Johnston County through volunteerism, civic engagement, and service to others.
Voter Engagement:	• Encourage more people to participate in their communities and in the political process.
