DOWN HOME
NORTH CAROLINA

Ramona Allen
Board Of Commissioners

BIOGRAPHY/ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

Ramona Allen 	Bio: Ramona Allen is a lifelong Alamance County resident, outreach pastor, licensed minister, and longtime community advocate. Through God Encounters Outreach Ministries, she has helped provide food, clothing, showers, and other resources to people experiencing homelessness and incarcerated families. She has also served as a chaplain at the Alamance County Jail and led parenting classes. Why she's running: Ramona says she is running to put people before politics and bring the community-centered service she has provided for years into county government. Her campaign emphasizes creating positive change and ensuring residents have the resources and opportunities they need to thrive.
PLATFORM:	Housing: • Create and renovate spaces to help move people experiencing homelessness into stable housing. Community Partnership: • Bring organizations and residents together to pool resources and address community needs. Schools & Taxes: • Support new or upgraded schools while seeking lower taxes. Fair Government: • Push for fair administration regardless of race, gender, or status.

	Voting Rights: ● Fight voter suppression and improve election integrity. Public Safety & Justice ● Work toward fair treatment and justice for everyone. Opportunity: ● Make sure every resident has the same opportunity to thrive.