DOWN HOME NORTH CAROLINA

Robert D. Fountain
Sherriff

BIOGRAPHY/ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

Bio:
Sheriff Robert Fountain is a community-focused law enforcement leader who emphasizes being present, accessible, and connected to the people of Granville County. He prioritizes community engagement, building trust with residents, and partnerships that help protect families and children. His leadership is rooted in service, accountability, and public safety.

Why he's running:
Sheriff Fountain is running to continue building a safer, stronger Granville County by protecting families, strengthening partnerships between law enforcement and the community, and maintaining trust with the people he serves. He believes effective public safety starts with being visible, listening to residents, and working together to protect the community.

Community Safety:	• Continuing efforts to keep neighborhoods, schools, roads, and public spaces safe.
Strong Law Enforcement Support:	• Supporting deputies, officers, and staff with the leadership, resources, and respect they need to serve well.
Youth & Family Outreach:	• Building positive relationships with young people and families through visibility, mentorship, and prevention-focused programs.
Accountable Leadership:	• Leading with integrity, transparency, professionalism, and a commitment to the people.
Partnerships that Work:	• Working with churches, civic groups, schools, nonprofits, businesses, and local leaders to address community needs.