DOWN HOME NORTH CAROLINA

Scott Huffman
North Carolina House District 76

BIOGRAPHY/ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

Bio:
Scott Huffman is a father, U.S. Navy veteran, and information technology and cybersecurity professional. He is a longtime community advocate who believes public service should be about listening, showing up, and being accountable to the people. He has also previously been nominated by the Democratic Party to run for Congress.

Why he's running:
Scott is running for NC House District 76 because he believes government should work for everyday people, not just the wealthy or well-connected. He wants to protect democracy and constitutional rights while fighting for working families, strong public schools, affordable healthcare, fair wages, and a better future for North Carolina's children.

Public Education:	• Fully fund public schools, support teachers and public employees, and ensure every child has access to a quality education.
Working Families & Fair Wages:	• Support fair wages and policies that help working families afford to live and build a better future.
Healthcare:	• Expand access to affordable healthcare and protect people's ability to get the care they need.
Democracy & Voting Rights:	• Protect voting rights, strengthen accountability, and end partisan gerrymandering.
Reproductive Freedom:	• Protect women's reproductive rights and personal healthcare decisions.
Public Safety & Criminal Justice:	• Improve public safety while supporting criminal justice reform and fair treatment under the law.
Veterans:	• Support veterans and ensure they have access to the services and resources they earned.
Climate & Environment:	• Address climate change and protect North Carolina's communities and natural resources.
Equality & Immigration:	• Advance equal rights and support humane immigration policies.
