DOWN HOME NORTH CAROLINA

Tonya N Sned
Board of Commissioners

BIOGRAPHY/ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

Bio:
Tonya N. Sneed is a longtime Granville County community leader, educator, and public servant. She made history as the first Black woman elected to the Stovall Town Commission and has experience in local government, workforce development, education, and community leadership. She is now running for Granville County Commissioner to bring that experience and a commitment to inclusive, accountable government to District 2.

Why she's running:
Tonya Sneed is running to make sure Granville County government listens to its residents, remains accountable, and invests in the communities it serves. After years of serving Stovall and working in education and public service, she wants to bring her experience to the county level and make sure District 2 has a strong voice in decisions that affect everyday life.

| | |
|---|---|
| Keep county government accountable and inclusive: | • Make sure residents have a voice in county decisions and that government works for the whole community. |
| Protect working families and residents on fixed incomes: | • Her record in Stovall includes raising concerns about how tax increases and rising water costs affect residents. |
| Invest in infrastructure and basic services: | • Her local-government experience includes transportation, water, streets, recreation, and other community infrastructure. |
| Strengthen education and workforce opportunities: | • As an educator and workforce-development professional, she has focused on connecting people with education, training, and opportunities. |
| Support youth and community development: | • Her community work includes youth leadership and programs designed to connect young people with educational and career opportunities. |
| Bring experienced local leadership to the county: | • She has already served in municipal government and wants to use that experience at the county level. |